Text: Saff & Snider, Fundamentals of Complex Analysis for Mathematics, Sciences and Engineering, 3rd Edition, Prentice Hall, 2003. ISBN: 0-13-907874-6

Grade Determination: There will be three unit exams (20% each), a homework/ Mathematica score (20%) and a comprehensive final exam (20%).

Exams:

Exam 1:	Wednesday	September 16
Exam 2:	Monday	October 19
Exam 3:	Wednesday	November 18
Final Exam:	To be announced (Either December 7 or 9)

Homework/Mathematica Policy: Prior knowledge of Mathematica is not required for this course. All Mathematica code will be provided to you for the homework. We will spend some time together in the Mathematica computer lab (SI 124 lab). Please bring USB flash memory key with you for when we go to the lab.

Late homework up to 2 calendar days late at half credit; After 2 calendar days, no credit.

Homework assignments and due dates will be posted on my web site.

Check my web site for current course information.

Write neatly in pencil, show all work and staple pages.

Missed exams: No make-up or early exams will be given. The final exam score will be substituted for one missing unit exam. If no scores are missing, the final exam score will replace the lowest exam score. The final exam, however, is not optional and may not be missed.

NC Withdrawal Date: The last day to withdraw and receive an NC for full-term classes: Friday, October 23, 2009. This is a hard deadline and will be enforced as such. The department will not approve any late NC requests.

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities: The Metropolitan State College of Denver is committed to making reasonable accommodations to assist individuals with disabilities in reaching their academic potential. If you have a disability which may impact your performance, attendance, or grades in this class and are requesting accommodations, then you must first register with the Access Center, located in the Auraria Library, Suite 116, 303-556-8387.

The Access Center is the designated department responsible for coordinating accommodations and services for students with disabilities. Accommodations will not be granted prior to my receipt of your faculty notification letter from the Access Center. Please note that accommodations are never provided retroactively (i.e. prior to the receipt of your faculty notification letter). Once I am in receipt of your official Access Center faculty notification letter, I would be happy to meet with you to discuss your accommodations. All discussions will remain confidential. Further information is available by visiting the Access Center website www.mscd.edu/~access.

Class Attendance on Religious Holidays: Observance of religious holidays follows College policy, which is posted on the web at <http://handbook.mscd.edu> in the Academic and Campus Policies for Students section. Each student is responsible for understanding and abiding by the policy.

Academic Dishonesty: An act of Academic Dishonesty may lead to sanctions including a reduction in grade, probation, suspension, or expulsion. See the Student Handbook at <http://handbook.mscd.edu> in the Academic and Campus Policies for Students section - Student Conduct Code.
